

Course: Change Management Practitioner Certification

Montefiore Hudson Valley Collaborative (MHVC) have partnered with Prosci® to offer a certification in change management for our partners. The three-day (3) experiential learning program teaches you how to apply a holistic change management methodology and toolset to a real project.

Pre-work

Once selected, participants will receive a course packet prior to class with the following prerequisites: (1) a project description questionnaire, to be completed prior to class and (2) assigned reading.

By completing the Prosci® Change Management Certification participants will:

- Understand how effective change management improves organizational results
- Learn to apply a research-based change management methodology and toolset
- Understand the fundamentals of change and change management
- Gain certification in the Prosci® change management methodology and access to the Prosci® change management methodology and tools
- Leave with a change management plan that leverages research-based practices to effectively manage change and enhance project results.

Who Should Attend

The Prosci® Change Management Certification Program is intended for staff who are actively managing change initiatives.
